

Outputs

6 library rooms (145 m<sup>2</sup>) renovated and entrance of the library (49m<sup>2</sup>) accustomized for people with special needs, wheelchairs in Shlisselburg (Russia)

Open-air stage for 700 persons built in Karsava (Latvia)

Open-air reading place – stage (for 50 persons) with lighting installation constructed near the library in Vilani (Latvia)

6 local and 3 international Literate-Artist meetings organised in Karsava, Vilani and Shlisselburg with more than 350 participants

3 international competitions arranged for the best lyrics and art work in Vilani, Karsava and Shlisselburg with 263 participants

International teleconference for local writers, artists and musicians organised in Vilani, Karsava and Shlisselburg with 93 participants

Modern multimedia equipment and technical devices purchased for high-quality electronic communication in Vilani, Karsava and Shlisselburg

Media Library as virtual branch of the Russian Museum established where more than 300 movies about art available

1 project book "Forget a Hurry!" (600 copies) published about municipalities, project and poetry, prose and artwork of local artists (123 authors)

5-day international summer camp "Art without Borders" organised in Karsava with participation of 44 people

Internet blog "Forget a Hurry!" established to present the project news and artwork of local writers and artists

<http://shlb-library.livejournal.com/>

1 final conference of the project organised in Shlisselburg

5 stories about the project reflected in TV

Summer camp "Forget a Hurry" in Karsava, Latvia in August 2014

Final conference (III part) in Shlisselburg School, Russia in December 2014

Opening of new open-air stage in Karsava, Latvia in June 2014

Final conference (II part) in Shlisselburg School, Russia in December 2014

RESULTS

Improved infrastructure and modernised conditions for literates and artists, local inhabitants has enlivened cultural life in Shlisselburg (Russia), Vilani, Karsava (Latvia)

Number of people visiting Shlisselburg library increased for 30% in a year due to renovation of rooms, access created for disabled people and diverse culture programme

Best poems and artwork from 3 international competitions are chosen and published in a book "Forget a Hurry"

Internationally popularised poetry, prose and artwork of writers, artists of border region of Latvia and Russia

Creative ideas exchanged by immediate communication via teleconferences between 93 representatives from Shlisselburg, Vilani and Karsava municipalities

Strengthened potential and amplified creative capacity of local literate and artist groups in border area of Latvia and Russia

Project results, literature and art potential in project region presented to 173 participants of the conference as well to inhabitants of the region via TV broadcast and media

International summer camp "Art without Borders" in Karsava, Latvia in March 2013